WHEAT MARKET UNSTEADY.

FLUCTUATIONS WERE VERY FREQUENT THE CEREAL CLOSING 1-2c HIGHER.

Corn Was Active and Strong, the Gain for the Day Being 1-2c - Oats Declined 1-1c, While Provisions Were Lower.

Chicago, Ill., May 21.-Wheat was dizzy to-lay, as the result of the great rise which it has experienced within the past few days. The news was nearly all bullish and higher prices were logically to be looked for; but the trade has become accustomed to declines and a for rise jog-gles it off its balance. Consequently when the market showed a tendency to waver at the top to-day there was a rush of longs and shorts to sell and a tumble of 25c. Fluctuations were very frequent through-out the session, but the close shows an advance of the over yesterday. Corn.

Fluctuations were very frequent throughout the session, but the close shows an advance of 'pe over yesterday. Corn. though influenced by wheat to some extent, was more directly influenced by the flosts and inclined to greater steadiness than wheat, closing 'pe higher than yesterday. Oats are 'pe lower, pork, 1721 lower; lard, 1250, and ribs, 150 lower.

Wheat opened weak with sellors at from 75c to 725c for July, but there were numerous buyers for a matter of half an boar or so, who evidently looked for a repetition of the sequences to all the resent breaking in the price. They were not disappointed. It recovered to 745c, but what occurred in the next half hour rather upset the calculations of the crowd. After hanging between 75c and 735c for about twenty minutes succeeding the bulge to 745c, it took a sudden dip to 735c, recovered to 735c, broke again to 735c, recovered to 735c, broke again to 735c, but quickly dropped so far that the last named figures appeared to be away up on the top of an inaccessible mountain. It went down to 715c. It took about thirty minutes to tumble 'sc. The volatile character of the market was well maintained throughout the session, for by 12 o'clock the price had again climbed to 735c. The great strength of July wheat at St. Louis, where the traders are in close touch with the crop conditions in the best part of the winter wheat country, did much to keep up the courage of the buils. There was nothing, in fact, in receipts or shipments, foreign advices or domestic crop conditions which could be construcd unfavorable to holders of wheat. On the contrary, the general tenor of the news favored still higher prices. The only thing that was advanced against the price was that it had grown too rapidly and that after a 25c rise it should react 5c at least. The scalpers, big and little, were of the latter opinion, and hence the early and subsequent breaks. Liverpool, London Paris and Berlin all quoted higher prices. The Minneapolls and Duluth receipts were 215 cars, compared with 25c a year a from this country and Canada.

The estimated weekly requirements of the importing nations amount to 8,700,000 hushels. The reports of crop damage and the professional selling fought each other foot to foot during the entire session, and as the end approached the market developed mest extreme nervousness. It rushed up and down between 75c and 75%, taking only a few moments to go from one extreme to the other and feetly extreme to the other and feetly extreme.

only a few moments to go from one extreme to the other, and finally closed at 73%.c.

Corn was fairly active and strong in the face of receipts of 917 cars and an absence of demand for round lots for shipment. It was a local scalping trade principally in the pit, with the fluctuations over a range of 18c, and those, for the most part, following in the wake of the price changes in wheat, July, from 55% and 55% near the opening, rose to 54%, dropped to 53c, rose in the afternoon to 54% and closed at 16c, or 4% higher than it did vesterday.

Oats were active, Longs were again selfing and shorts huying, Orders from the country to buy were also numerous. Bad crop reports were influential in causing the urgent country demand for outs. While the market experienced lower values throughout, and closed from 14c to 5c under yesterday's, last questations, fluctuations were ruled entitly by wheat and corn. The cash market for oats was very weak, prices bring about the lower, and the feeling extended into the speculative crowd, vonsequently the lower prices and a comparatively firm tone. July sold from 24% to 25c undered with yesterday's closing prices, of 50c in pork, and about 10c in lard and ribs. The estimated run of hous for to-morrew being $5,000 tended to produce the custer feeling, but the receipts this morning were only 21,000 and they were quoted firm at 15c advance. Pork after a temporary rally of 71% dropped 22% then recovered a little and closed for July at $12.55 sellers, compared with $12.52 on the day before, 2ard at the close had lost 125c and ribs from 135c to 15c.

TOPEKA PRINTERS ON A STRIKE.

wages. The printers were constrained out by the local Typographical I hion. In 1833 the union and the emoloyers agreed upon the following scale of weekly wages: Eight hours, $14; nine hours, $15; ten hours, $15; Lately the union decided that nine hours should constitute a day's work and all over that should be bail for as extra time. The publishers of Topeka have always submitted to the union, but that organization has become so intolererant that the publishers of the town are all disposed to break with it. Notice was served by the union upon the printers in the Breeze r.d. Mail offices that they must stop work next Saturday night unless the offices were unionized. Both of these offices are paying full union scale, but do not recognize the union as director seneral in the details of the business. Major Rulson, the state printer-elect, has decided to put five typesetting machines in the state office; the Breeze will also use machines; the owner of the Daily Press is now in the East seeking machines; Hall & O'Donald have filled their office with non-culon men and announce that no union men goed apply, and, altogether, the outlook is not rosy for the Topeka Typographical union.

A CONVENTION NECESSARY.

State Central Committee Will Probably Nominate Chief Justice Martin to Succeed Himself.

Topeka, Kas., May 21.—(Special.) One subject which was discussed at length by the executive committee of the State Republican League, yesterday, was the adby the executive committee of the State Republican League, yesterday, was the advisability of calling a state convention for the nomination of a candidate for chief justice. The resignation of Chief Justice Horten compels an election the coming fall to fill the vacancy. It is universally concested that Chief Justice Martin, who was appointed by Governor Mortili to fill the interim, will be nominated by the Republicans to fill the place, and the discussion developed almost ananimity of opinion that the state central committee should make the nomination and not call a delegate convention to ratify what is already a forespone conclusion.

Secretary Bristow, of the Republican state central committee, met with the executive committee of the league yesterday and gave the information that no consideration of the matter had yet been had by the state central committee.

Unless there should be other candidates in the field against Judge Marin, it is altogether likely that the state central committee will assume the responsibility of declaring Judge Martin the nomine of the Republican party.

Chaleman Leland says there is no occassion for hurry in the matter and is awaiting some expression of opinion from other members of the committee.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 21.—(Special.)
The supreme court in bane this morning denied the motion to vacate the order of discharge in the case of the state against H. Clay Arnold, recorder of voters. This estops further attempts to compel the recorder to open the ballot boxes in the criminal court, while contests are pending in the criminal court.

Contrary to expectations the court did not hand down a decision in the case of Kansas City vs. the Kansas City Gas Light and Coke Company.

Attacked by an Insune Woman.
Eldorado, Kas., May 21.—(Special.) Mrs.
Mary Fes was adjudged insane in this city yesterday and was taken to the home of A. J. Holderman. This morning when
Mrs. Holderman went to her room Mrs.
